Thomas Totten Chief Executive Officer, Nyhart Insurance

Mr. Totten is an actuary and chief executive officer of Nyhart, one of the nation's largest independent actuarial firms. As the firm's senior executive, he oversees the operation and strategic growth of the growing company in addition to continuing to consult as a senior actuary to a variety of national companies.

Mr. Totten has a broad background in defined benefit and defined contribution consulting and is regularly turned to by CEOs, CFOs, and boards of directors on retirement and other employee benefit strategies, consulted with a number of Fortune 500 companies, as well as groups like local utilities and church organizations. He previously worked for the international actuarial firm Hewitt Associates, where he served as an actuarial consultant and at United Actuarial Services as chief health care actuary, consulting with Taft-Hartley plans for health care and pensions.

Mr. Totten serves on the advisory board of the Institute of Pension Plan Management at Indiana University Purdue University at Ft. Wayne, and on the advisory board for the Department of Actuarial Science at Ball State University. In addition, he's a frequent speaker at numerous national events regarding retirement plan topics.

Sponsored by the Delahanty Family Endowment for Excellence in Mathematics, the Department of Applied and Computational Mathematics and Statistics, and the Actuarial Science Club.
