

Labrang Tashi Kyil Monks Return to Notre Dame to create Peace Sand Mandala

Monday, September 24 – Friday, September 28
Jordan Hall of Science, First Floor Reading Room

---

Monday, September 24, 10 am: Opening Ceremony
Tuesday–Thursday, 9 am- 5 pm: Monks create the Peace Sand Mandala
Friday, September 28, 10 am: Closing Ceremony

---

Six Buddhist Monks of the Labrang Tashi Kyil Monastery in Dehra Dun, India, are returning to Notre Dame to create the sacred Peace Sand Mandala over the course of the week. Upon completion, the Sand Mandala is dismantled to symbolize the impermanence of all that exists.

All are welcome to observe this amazing, intricate process and spend time with the monks.

To find out more, visit: compassionatecare.nd.edu/events

RUTH M. HILLEBRAND CENTER
FOR COMPASSIONATE CARE IN MEDICINE